

The Interventional Radiology Division of the Department of Radiology in the College of Medicine at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences (UAMS) in Little Rock, AR is seeking a full-time a faculty member. The Division of Interventional Radiology is responsible for providing quality interventional care to patients across the region and country. The IR Division performs more than 9,000 interventional cases per year. UAMS is the only kidney and liver transplant program in the state and the only Level 1 trauma center in the state. Our clinical practice includes an HHT Center of Excellence and a Comprehensive Stroke Center.

We deliver comprehensive outpatient and inpatient care in conjunction with appropriate consultants and specialists for the diagnosis and treatment of a broad spectrum of diseases. Our mission is to provide high quality patient care while training the next generation of interventional radiologists. Our training programs include integrated and independent residency programs as well as the ESIR pathway.

Faculty candidates must hold an M.D. or equivalent degree, be either BE/BC by the ABR and have medical licensure or eligibility in Arkansas. The candidate must be fellowship trained in interventional radiology. The ideal candidate will have a service-oriented, practice-building approach.

To apply, email CV and letter of interest to andersonsshey@uams.edu attention Dr. Mollie Meek, Director, Division of Interventional Radiology.
