

Diagnostic Radiology Residency

Recruitment FAQs

1. For IMGs, is an ECFMG Certification required at the time of application?

Yes

2. Do you require Step 2 CS and Step 2 CK for all applicants this year?

We expect completion of Step 1, Step 2 CK and Step 2 CS at the time of application. Due to pandemic related delays, if Step 2 CK score is not available, a competitive Step 1 score of 230-240 and above will be considered.

To be considered for this program, applicants must pass either the USMLE Step 2 CS exam or the COMPLEX Level 2 PE exam ON THE FIRST TRY (no exceptions).

3. How will you conduct interviews this year?

Virtual interviews with options for a second look

4. Does your program sponsor visas?

We sponsor H1-B and J-1 visas. We do not sponsor F1-OPT.

5. Does your program take International Medical Graduates (IMGs)?

Yes, our program supports diversity and takes pride in training talented IMGs.

6. How many positions is your program offering this match?

7 positions

7. What are the minimum requirements for admission into your program?

- ERAS application
- Medical school transcript
- Dean's letter

- Three letters of recommendation
- Personal statement
- USMLE Step I score report
- USMLE Step II score report (if available at time of application)
- Current photo
- ECFMG certificate, if applicable
- ALL applications are accepted only through ERAS (Electronic Residency Application Service).
- D.O.s are also expected to have USMLE Step 1 & Step 2 scores to interview (COMLEX scores alone are not sufficient).

8. When are interviews typically conducted?

During the months of November and December.

9. Do you have a time since graduation cut off? If yes, how many years?

We ideally only consider applicants within 2 years of graduation but exceptions may be made for up to 5 years.

10. Is US Clinical experience required?

Clinical experience is ideal, but not mandatory.

11. Do you have any specific requirements for Letters of Recommendation?

We prefer one of the letters is from a radiologist that an applicant has worked with directly.
