

UAMS Well Represented at American Academy of Ophthalmology 2020 Virtual Annual Meeting

From Paul Phillips, M.D.

*Professor and Chair, Department of Ophthalmology
Director, Jones Eye Institute*

AAO was a challenge being all virtual this year. However, that did not stop the stellar presence of our department with seven presentations as listed below. Congratulations to all including our residents, Kinza Ahmad MD, Zia Siddiqui MD; our faculty, Sami Uwaydat MD, Ahmed Sallam MD, our prolific orthoptist Kathy Fray CO, and finally our award winning medical student, Michelle Huynh BA.
